

Abstract Submission for the ESGE 29th Annual Congress, Lisbon, Portugal is open!

You can now submit your clinical and scientific work for the ESGE 29th Annual Congress to be held in Lisbon, Portugal on 11th – 14th October 2020.

The ESGE Annual Congress is now one of the most important congresses in the field of gynaecological endoscopy and is attended by an ever growing number of healthcare professionals as well as the industry. Last year the quality of abstracts presented was extremely high and we are sure that the level of scientific contributions will be even higher in 2020!

Be aware that we have two portals to submit an abstract:

1. Regular Abstract Submission (oral, video and poster)
2. PhD Thesis Abstracts

You can access the online abstract submission system here:
